

Economic Consulting for Strategic Advantage

Competition • Litigation • Mergers • Policy

Who We Are

Tempo Economics is an independent economic consulting firm specialising in competition economics, damage litigation, merger control, and economic policy analysis.

We work with law firms, corporations, and public sector organisations in matters where economic analysis plays a central role in legal, regulatory, and strategic decision-making.

Our approach combines rigorous economic theory, advanced data analysis, and practical experience to produce analysis that is robust, transparent, and credible.

What We Do

Tempo Economics provides expert economic advice in high-stakes environments.

Our work is frequently used in court proceedings, competition authority investigations, merger control reviews, and regulatory processes, where clarity and analytical rigor are essential.

We tailor each assignment to the specific legal, regulatory, and commercial context of the case.

Core Services

Dispute and Litigation Support

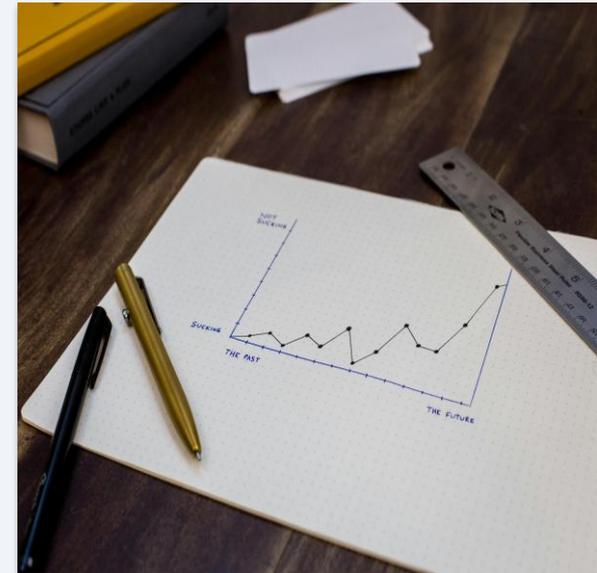

We quantify economic damages, develop counterfactual scenarios, and prepare expert reports to support litigation and arbitration across a wide range of disputes.

Merger Control and Competition Analysis

We conduct market definition, competitive effects analysis, and economic assessment to support merger notifications and antitrust reviews.

Competition Law Advisory and Policy Analysis

We advise on alleged anti-competitive conduct, compliance issues, and regulatory and policy impacts.
